RE: Replacement of Law Books Lost in Temple Law School Fire

Dear Law School Librarian,

In a recent fire at Temple Law School, many thousands of dollars worth of law books were destroyed. As classes are scheduled to commence within a month, the immediate replacement of as many volumes as possible is vital. Under the auspices of the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association, I am attempting to establish a Book Bank of any duplicate volumes which you may have to donate to Temple Law School. The major losses which they suffered were the State Reporters, Law Reviews and Legal Periodicals. If you are able to donate any duplicate copies of these books to Temple Law School and to aid the Law Student Division in establishing a Book Bank to aid other law schools who will suffer such calamities in the future, please fill out the enclosed postcard and list the books which you could donate. Any mailing charges for shipment of the books will be covered by the Law Student Division. Upon receiving your postcard, I will notify you concerning the disposition of the books. Thank you for any assistance that you may be able to give us in this project.

Sincerely,
Laura Horton,
Secretary-Treasurer
Law Student Division
